October 2, 2009

Look What We're Studying

Fire Drill—we did an awesome job on Tuesday! We learned that staying in an organized line and remaining quiet helped the fire drill go smoothly and effortlessly.

Continued letter formation practice.

"I am Helping" sight word book. We read it together focusing on sight words: I, am and the.

Color word recognition.

Four-part sequencing!

Categorizing animals and plants.

A "special" art project. Stay tuned for more details from the PFA.

We read our first leveled reader—It is Fall— during Centers.

Super Stars!

Thank you, Marianna—"Fact Finder" of the week.

Next week's "Fact Finder"—Kahje.

Have a fantastic week off, everyone! Safe travels if you are traveling out of town.

Samantha Brakefield, Teacher

Reminders:

- ☺ Salley Foster Sales Kits and envelopes were due Friday, October 2. If you forgot to return your envelope, please do so ASAP. Thanks.
- ☺ Send in those Box Tops for Education!!!

The Wheels In our Brains Go 'Round and 'Round. We are Smart. It's Profound!

Our classroom needs...

Bookshelves and/or file cabinets for storing supplies and curriculum.

Thank you, Volunteers! All of our students benefit from your involvement in the classroom.

Much appreciated!
